

IWU Prospect/Skills Camp

August 28
1 PM - 6 PM
Grades 9 - 12

Do you have aspirations of playing at the next level?
Do you want to know your strengths and weaknesses?

This one day camp will give you a great idea about the skills that it takes to play at the college level. This camp is patterned after the NBA pre-draft camp where players are assessed to see what they need to work on if they are going to advance their career. The focus will be on teaching the skills that it will take to be successful at the next level and on educating you about the recruiting process.

For the cost of $45, each participant will receive:

- A FREE T-Shirt
- Skill Testing
- Advanced Instruction
- Height, weight, vertical, strength and speed assessment
- Recruiting seminar from IWU head coach and former Division I player Greg Tonagel

Coaching Staff

Greg Tonagel-Camp Director

Greg Tonagel became head coach at Indiana Wesleyan University in 2005 and has quickly taken the Wildcats to the top of the Mid-Central College Conference (MCC). In just five years, Tonagel has won 128 games, including three MCC Championships, three trips to the Elite Eight in the NAIA National Tournament, and one NCCAA National Championship. In his first two years at the IWU helm, Tonagel was named the MCC Coach of the Year.

Tonagel played college basketball at Valparaiso University, where he played in 4 NCAA national tournaments. He is quickly developing a reputation as an elite recruiter and a master teacher of sound fundamentals who demands maximum effort from his players. He will be giving a lecture on the ins and outs of the recruiting process during the camp, so you can be fully educated on what to expect in recruiting and how to put yourself in the best position to be recruited.

IWU Players

Members of the IWU Men's Basketball Program will be on hand to demonstrate drills and work with players. In the past two years, IWU has produced three players who have gone on to sign professional contracts and play basketball in such places as Argentina, Australia and Uruguay.
